Open Evening

Record numbers attended our open evening on 15th September, 250 pupils came through the door to explore what Redruth School has to offer them. Mr Martin, Headteacher, commenced the evening with a presentation and welcome. Parents comments were very positive and encouraging. "It's very reassuring to know that Mr Martin cares about the welfare and happiness of my child." Mrs Thomas, parent. "It's clear that a lot of hard work goes on behind the scenes to really get the best possible results for your child, whatever their skills or interests may be." Mr Adams, parent.

Pupils were equally optimistic about what they hoped to achieve at Redruth School. Josh said, "Dr Pidwell took us to the Plymouth Aquarium last week and I loved it! I hope I will be in his class next year!" Darren, year 6 pupil said, "I made a ruler in technology, then I made a bread tortoise and just now I made a plant cell with a nucleus. I'm definitely coming to Redruth School!"
