Drama Exams

A big well done to the Year 11 Drama GCSE students who performed their production pieces to family and friends, and then performed all over again for the external examiner.

Much hard work was put in to create excellent performance work. It was the last practical exam for the Year 11 Drama students. They have one final written Drama exam on May 19th.

Shelterbox Appeal

Year 7 students are raising money for Shelterbox. They have set themselves an ambitious target of 2 boxes, which means raising £1,200. The charity visited the school on 22nd April and gave a presentation on their work to the Year 7 students. This was organised as part of their next project "Are you a survivor?" The students are currently taking part in survival workshops. They have been following the events in Nepal and are eager to get their fundraising efforts off to a flying start, particularly after hearing of the most recent earthquake. More details will follow in next week's newsletter.

School Council

The School Council would like a bigger team in September. We currently have two representatives per year group. We would like to expand this to four per year group. This is a great opportunity to join a team of motivated individuals who want to make a difference in the school. The council will send out more information on these opportunities nearer the end of term.

Mr Horam and his daughter Kate, who did some of her teacher training at Redruth School, are cycling 205 miles in three days across 3 counties for Children's Hospice South West. They will start at Little Harbour Hospice in St Austell and then ride on to Little Bridge House before completing the journey at Charlton Farm near Bristol. The course is very challenging with a lot of hills! They are both training hard and every climb is worthwhile. Mr Horam said, "Children's Hospice South West do an amazing job and we want to raise money to help them continue to deliver their support to those families who use their outstanding facilities."
