

In the advent of warming weather, between now and the end of this term, the wearing of blazers will be optional.

I will however require full uniform to be worn at certain events this term such as at the Presentation Evenings and any other formal occasions.

Due to the unpredictable nature of the weather, I will leave the decision on blazer wearing up to you as parents.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Craig Martin
Headteacher